Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! The deductible amount selected at the inception of the insurance and specified in the Certificate of Insurance.
- ! Some benefits have an annual or lifetime maximum and/or a maximum period or amount.
- ! For some benefits, cover begins after a 12-month waiting period from the inception of the insurance.
- ! Coverage ceases while any overdue premium remains unpaid.
- ! Failure to obtain pre-authorization may result in no payment for some benefits or a copayment for others.
- ! Air or sea travel after 28 weeks of pregnancy.
- ! Charges incurred before or after the period of insurance.
- ! Coverage ceases for anyone who no longer resides within European Economic Area (EEA).

Where am I covered?

- ✓ Worldwide, including or excluding the USA (according to the selection made at the inception of the insurance).

What are my obligations?

- When entering into, modifying or renewing the insurance, you are required to disclose any information that affects your insurance and to answer each question accurately.
- In the event of a claim, you must contact the Health Assistance Service and obtain pre-authorization before any costs are incurred. For some benefits below €3.000, you may notify us in writing afterwards. Please see the policy wording for full details.
- Pay your premium on time.

When and how do I pay?

Premiums may be paid annually, semi annually, quarterly or monthly, depending on our agreement, via automatic bank transfer or direct debit.

When does the cover start and end?

Cover begins on the Effective Date and ends 12 months later, on the Expiration Date, both of which are stated in the Certificate of Insurance. While any premium remains overdue, cover is suspended.

How do I cancel the contract?

With written notice sent by post or email. The policyholder may cancel within 14 days from the inception of the insurance (cooling-off period) and receive a full refund of premium, provided no claims have been made.

Any cancellation after the cooling-off period will result in a pro-rata refund, as long as no claims have been made.
